LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., October 16, 1876—10:30 a. m.— In the Middle States, falling or nearly stationary barometer, dimishing westerly winds, backing to warmer southerly, and generally clear weather, with heavy irosts on Tuesday morning.

LECTURE. - The lecture of Dr. J. W. Rod gers, of Memphis, Tenn., on "The Inquisition," at St. Mary's Hail, last night, was more largely attended than lectures usually are in Alexandria. Nearly the entire audience was of the same religious faith as the lecturer, and Dr. Rougers soon made a bond of interest and sympathy between himself and his auditors, who followed him with rapt attention and often with applause for nearly two hours, and who regretted when he ceased to speak. He handled his theme with great vivacity, and essayed to show that "Tue I quisition" had been much misrepresented by Liorence and the authors of popular histories. All nations had similar tri-bunals, and iew of them had not been abused, and sacrificed human lite. The R man inqui sition alone had never caused an execution. The Spanish inquisition was *xceptional in its nature. The infidel Moors had crushed Spain, and the Spanish people, who had risen and driven out the invaders, were still in deadly peril from a foe that made slaves of the men and consigned their wives, mothers and daughters to the vile purposes of the Moslem. I was then that crow is of Morescos pretended to become christians, but acted as sales and be trayed the christians to the Mosiem. Under these circumstances lyach law was common in Spain, and oftentimes the innocont suffered in-stead of the guilty. It was to try first and pun-ish afterwards that Queen Isabella instituted the Lequisition. No professed Jew or Moslem suffered under it. Its jurisdiction extended only to traitors. Well it was that in these times we had come to have a horror of blood, but it was the Church that by elevating woman, enfranchising slaves, making truces, had taken the bloody tribes that once peopled Europe, and little by little, in patience and in love, had blood. We learn that a considerable sum was raised in aid of the charity to which the proceeds were devoted.

Mr. VERNON EXCURSIONISTS. - About six hundred persons visted Mount Verson on the steamers Arrow and Mary Washington, on Sat urday last. O: the homeward trip they were entertained with some good music, by a chorus composed of the Mt. Vernon guides. The travel on this route continues to be large, both boats being crowded every day.

The Washington Chronicle says: "The Mount Vernon route has become quite a favorne one for the pick pockets lately, as they are beyond the pail of pohee inspection, and the er wing of passengers in getting off and on the cars and boats affords the sneak thieves the very opportunity they need to ply their nefariou- vocation. The detectives might profitably employ their t me in watching the movements of certain paretes to that vicioity. Friday last a lady had her pockets picked on the steamer Arrow, white visiting Mount Vernon. The same day a man also returned minus his walter. The lady lost something in the neighborhood of $100, and the man $19."

THE WASHINGTON DEMOCRATIC CLUBS .-Tilden and Hendrick- Club of Washington, who have accepted invitations to participate in the grand toreblight procession in this city on special boat as 7 o'clock. Previous to leaving they will fire a hundred guns in honor of the recent democratic victories.

The Chairman of the Committee of Arrange ments and the Chief Marshal have appointed the following committee to rec ive the visitors at the boat and escent them to the head of the procession: Hugh Latham, George Duffey. Samuel Coleman. Daviel Henry, John Harlow, Harrison Kell. E Price, James Dugan, Robt, Crook, B. F. Duuley, James Johnson and Jas. E. Henderson. This committee will meet at the office of the Potomac F ray Company, foot of King street, promptly at 7:15 o'clock.

FIRE. - The alarm of fire about eleven o'clock vesterday morning, was caused by the discovery of flames and smoke in the confectionery store of Mr. M. Bessart, on Fairfax street near Prince. When discovered the fire was burning under the counter and against the shelving on the northern side of the store. The flames were speedily excuguished without the aid of the fire department, which was, however, quickly on the ground. The origin of the fire is unknown but it is supposed to have been caused by a hitle child playing with a match near a barrel o' paper. Owing to the high wind prevailing at the time, the alarm caused considerable exestement and collected a large crowd. The damage doné was trifling. A slight alarm, not sufficient however to bring out the department, was caused this morning by a fire at Blythe's barrel factory on Union street near Prince. The flames were speedily extinguished however without any serious damage.

CAPSIZE -A pungy belonging to Captain Faunce's arted from here, yesterday, for the lower Potomac, having on board a quantity of price, it still has the lead and will remain there. provision for the fishermen there, together with about six tons of ice to pack fish io. When off Sheridao's Point she was struck by a sudden squali and capsized. Her crew escaped in her beat. The vessel was a new one just built, this being her first trip. A tug boat and another pungy went down this morning to endeavor to right her. The caps z d pungy had during the night floated over to near Fort Washington wharf.

FAITHFUL MINISTER.—Rev. J. W. Webb, the minister of the First Colored Baptist Church, at Salem, Fauguier county, is certainly an energetic and faithful pastor. He lives at Guuston Hal, but also serves the church meationed above, and white on his way from one place to the other, on the 7th inst., he missed the Midland train in this city. Nothing dount ed, he rode on a flat car to Manassas, from which place he walked to Salem, a distance of twenty four miles, and filled his appointment.

EXTRA TRAIN .- Mr. Lewis McKe z'e. President of the W. & O. Railroad, with that courtesy and accommodation for which he is so noted, has agreed to run an extra train from Lesburg, on Wednesday evening n. x1, to en able persons living along the line of bis road to take part in the grand torehlight procession in this cay. The train will leave Leesturg at 4 p. m. An extra train wil also be run from the Leesburg fair on Thursday evening at the same

THE WEATHER.-The weather moderated considerably on Saturday, but became again cold during that night, and towards Sunday morning there was a slight fall of snow, and considerable thin ice was formed in exposed places. During yesterday and last night the wind blew strongly from the northwest and the air had a decidedly wintry feeling. To day the thermometer is still low and the air cold.

BOATMEN'S CO-OPERATION. - The Cumberland Alleganian says: We heard several boatthe brilliant prospects held out for them by the talked of co-operative movement. WEDDING. -Mr. Samuel Enstein, poundmaster of Washing on, was married at the residence of Mr. Samuel Bernheimer, on Lee street, yesterday, to Miss Jennie Guggen-heimer, of Evansville, Indiana. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Stein, of the 8th Street Synagogue, Washington, and was witnessed by a large number of the friends of the parties. The bride was attired in a handsome ments of Etruscan gold. The groom wore the conventional suit of black. After the ceremony was over the company partook of a spleudid wedding feast which had been prepared, and the festivities commuted until a late hour, when the bridal party took their departure for Philathe bridal party took their departure for Phila-

SPRUNG ALEAK .- The schooner Editle Wright, loaded with shot and shell from the Washington navy-yard, and bound to Wil mington, Del., while on her way down the river, on Saturday, sprung aleak, and the captain finding it necessary to keep the pumps going all the time, in order to keep her free, thought it best to put into the Columbia's wharf, where he discharged a part of bis cargo, and will go up in the ways at the ship-yard before proceeding on her voyage.

DRUNKENNESS.-Since the amendment to the corporation code relative to drunkenness, Mayor Johnson has, as he announced he would do, proceeded against drunkards under the State law, and has in that way tried several m ulded out of them the cultivated peoples cases of parties arrested under his instructions that to-day stand aghast at the thought of by the city police. The Mayor declares his steadfast purpose to arrest all persons found druok and will issue a proclamation to that ef-

WARD MEETINGS. - The conservative ward meetings, to elect delegates to the Senatorial convention, are to be held to night. The meetings will be held in the First ward at No. 34 Prince street; Second ward, Sun Engine House; Third ward, old Court House; Fourth ward, Friendship Engine House, in accordance with the resolution of the city committee heretorore published.
